Plain Press Rate Sheet

Why should I advertise in the Plain Press?

• The Plain Press is a well-established member of the community. Since 1971, residents of Cleveland's Near West Side neighborhoods have recognized the Plain Press as their community newspaper; they know the name and they've seen it in their neighborhood for over thirty years. Area residents look for the paper and pick it up each month.

• The Plain Press helps build community. Ask your neighbors – almost everyone knows someone – a friend, neighbor, or family member – whose story or photo has appeared in the Plain Press. The presence of a neighborhood newspaper is an important indicator of a vibrant neighborhood where people are concerned and involved in the community. For a neighborhood newspaper to thrive, neighborhood businesses need to be part of that equation.

• The Plain Press reaches the community. We circulate 21,000 papers monthly at over 500 distribution points from the Cuyahoga River to W. 130th Street and from Lake Erie to Denison Avenue. The distribution area includes the Brooklyn Centre, Clark Fulton, Cudell, Detroit-Shoreway, Edgewater, Ohio City, Stockyards, Tremont, Westtown and West Boulevard neighborhoods.

• When you advertise in the Plain Press, you are supporting the best neighborhood news coverage in the Greater Cleveland area. The Plain Press is an award-winning member of the Neighborhood Community Press Association of Greater Cleveland (NCPA).

• Advertising in the Plain Press is a community service. The Plain Press is an independent, nonprofit organization. Advertising is the newspaper's major source of income.
